Additional Resources

- Visit sat.org/practice to check out our free resources for current SAT and SAT Subject Tests.
- Starting in May 2016, the SAT is changing in the following ways:
  - There are four parts to the redesigned SAT: the Reading Test, the Writing and Language Test, the Math Test, and the (optional) Essay.
  - No points are subtracted for incorrect or omitted multiple-choice answers.
  - Test-takers receive a single total score of 400 to 1600 for the Evidence-Based Reading and Writing Test combined with the Math Test; three test scores for Reading, Writing and Language, and Math; plus cross-test scores and subscores. The optional Essay is scored separately. Go to collegereadiness.collegeboard.org to learn more and to access personalized practice for the redesigned SAT.
- Visit international.collegeboard.org for more planning resources to reach university.

About the College Board

The College Board is a mission-driven not-for-profit organization that connects students to college success and opportunity. Founded in 1900, the College Board was created to expand access to higher education. Today, the membership association is made up of over 6,000 of the world’s leading educational institutions and is dedicated to promoting excellence and equity in education. Each year, the College Board helps more than seven million students prepare for a successful transition to college through programs and services in college readiness and college success — including the SAT™ and the Advanced Placement Program®. The organization also serves the education community through research and advocacy on behalf of students, educators, and schools.

Check the back cover to see when tests are offered. You can tell if a test center is open on the test date you’ve selected by checking the following codes:

- Test center is open.
- L Test center is open and the SAT Language with Listening Subject Tests are also offered (November only).

Go to collegeboard.org/sat-codes for the latest information on test centers that may be available in your area. Also confirm test schedules for your area at sat.org/international.

The list printed here shows only international centers, so if you plan to test in the United States or a U.S. territory, go online to obtain a test center code.

Notes: Sunday test dates immediately follow the Saturday test, except for October 11, which has been moved to avoid conflict with a religious holiday. Sunday testing is not available in India or Pakistan. International mail must be received by the deadlines. Students applying through an SAT International Representative must submit their registrations by the early deadline. Registered test-takers who miss a test should reschedule through their online accounts or by calling Customer Service (the change fee applies). After January 2016, the SAT is changing. See page 2 for more information.

Visit sat.org/international to confirm test availability in your location.
